Tornado in Nebraska.

The Village of Bradshaw Entirely Destroyed.

TWELVE PEOPLE ARE KILLED.

Eight Others Mortally Wounded and Many More Seriously Injured—A Heavy Storm in Iowa and Several Other Places.

LINCOLN, Neb., June 5.—Parties returning from the scene of the tornado in Bradshaw, York county, yesterday evening, confirm the worst reports of the destruction by the storm of Tuesday night. The storm struck the town at 8:30 Tuesday evening, coming from the southwest. It struck the town fairly, and left not a single building in the business part of the town. All are a total wreck, and the principal street is filled with the ruins. A few houses were left in the extreme western part of the village, but they are without windows and doors, and their contents were scattered broadcast over the prairie.

The depot building was completely wrecked, and all the cars standing on the track blown away except one loaded with stock, which was blown, without leaving the track, to York, a distance of nine miles. This gave the alarm to the people of York, who sent a messenger, who at midnight returned with the news of the disaster. A relief party was at once sent out. A Russian settlement near the town was wrecked, and it is reported that nine were killed outright. Physicians, who left Lincoln on a relief train, report twelve dead at Bradshaw and that eight are mortally wounded and about twenty injured.

John Miller.
Child of J. Bronsey.
Wife and child of Isaac Penner.
Child of Mr. Clupire.
Two members of Mr. Shaw's family.
Wife and child of Mr. Minke; also his hired man.

The injured are: Dr. O. M. Moore, Mrs. Alex. Miller, Lulu Miller, Carrie Miller, Mr. and Mrs. John Babcock, Mr. and Mrs. John Brunsey, Isaac Penner, Mrs. Chapin, four members of the Cutshaw family, Mr. Kehar, Miss Nellie Dorsey, Mr. and Mrs. Williamson, Professor McDermott, Thomas Ross, Mrs. Wiggins, R. D. Logan, wife and two children of Tyler Colby and many others.

Governor Thayer has ordered the York militia to the scene and also sent sixty army tents and other supplies for the sufferers.

The cyclone was accompanied by a deluge of rain and a stunning fusillade of hail. Considering the complete destruction of the town it seems miraculous that so few lives were lost and that so few people were injured.

The Prussian settlement, southwest of Bradshaw, is also destroyed. The physicians state that a number of those injured will not live. The prairie around is strewn with dead hogs and stock.

The Storm in Iowa.

DES MOINES, Iowa, June 5.—Western Iowa was again deluged with rains Tuesday night. Great damage was done in the towns of Underwood, Neola, Persia and Weston, in Pottawattamie county. Yesterday morning Mosquito creek that flows through these towns overflowed its banks, and the country in the vicinity was flooded. At Underwood about thirty-five residences in the low lands were carried away by the water, five miles of the Milwaukee track was washed away and part of the town is now under fifteen feet of water. No lives were lost, but there were very narrow escapes.

At Weston the same creek flooded the city to a depth of five feet. Thirteen houses were wrecked and fifty more or less damaged. There was no loss of life. At Persia the torrent overspread the town to the depth of five feet, wrecked four houses and caused much other damage. The storm about Adair was the worst ever known, and much damage was done to crops and much stock lost by drowning. One farmer lost sixty head of hogs by drowning, and his barn, corn cribs, hay stacks and fences were flooded away, besides three feet of water in his residence. Bridges and culverts on railroads and highways are washed out and cornfields badly washed out. So far as learned no human lives were lost.

Steamboat Sunk by the Storm.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 5.—A Tribune special from Pierre, S. Dak., says: Yesterday the handsome new pleasure steamboat Lady Pierre was blown from her moorings on the bank by a high wind and out into the Missouri river and was wrecked and sunk, the waves rolling so high that rescue was impossible. It was the finest boat on the river, and attempts will be made to raise it.

Two sections of the draw in the pontoon bridge were also blown out and lost in the river by the gale. The country is deluged with rain, streams impassable, bridges washed out and the rain storm continues with unabated fury. The Missouri river is higher than for six years. The bridges will be replaced at once.

A Doomed Iowa Village.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa, June 5.—The village of Loveland, eighteen miles north of this city, seems doomed. Last Saturday night a cloud-burst just above the city, which lies in the Boyer valley, and sweeping down on the little city, carried away a number of houses and buildings. The storm which prevailed over this section Monday night completes the demolition of the village. The Boyer, which was swollen by the previous storm, overflowed its banks from Monday night's rains and carried everything before it. Nothing is left in the hamlet save the houses which stood on high ground. No loss of life is reported.

Building Destroyed by Lightning.

BELVIDERE, N. J., June 5.—A very severe thunder storm with high wind occurred yesterday evening. Lightning struck the Warren house stables and they were destroyed by fire, together with several other buildings. Loss, $10,000.

The Storm in Illinois.

FREEDPORT, Ill., June 5.—The heavy rains created great havoc on the railroads in this vicinity. The fall of rain was the heaviest that has visited this part of the country in years, and the damage done to the St. Paul, Kansas City, Illinois Central and Northwestern Railroad company by bridges being washed out and tracks washed away will be enormous. The crops have also been greatly damaged. A St. Paul freight train ran into a washout near here yesterday and wrecked fifteen cars.

Cyclone Strikes a School House.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 5.—A special to The Tribune from Chester, Iowa, says: A cyclone passed near this place at 3:30 yesterday afternoon. A school house, three miles south, was struck by the storm and completely demolished. The teacher, Miss Mary Smith, was badly injured and one pupil fatally injured. Miss Smith may possibly recover. Several farm houses and numerous outbuildings were blown away. The number of people injured is estimated at twenty.

At Buffalo.

BUFFALO, N. Y., June 5.—This city was visited last night by the most severe thunder and lightning storm of the season. Rain came down in torrents and hail at intervals as large as marbles. The Western Union telegraph officials report the loss of fifty Rochester wires.

Buffalo creek is a mill race in consequence of the big rain. Vessels scarcely dare go through the bridge as the current is strong enough to turn them broadside on. No serious accidents are reported.

Farmers Struck by Lightning.

CAIRO, Mich., June 5.—While I. N. Taggett, Edward Goodchild, W. Holmes and Taggett M. Ringle were working on a farm, four miles west of here last evening, a thunder storm came up suddenly, and the first bolt of lightning struck in the midst of the group of men, prostrating them all. Goodchild and Holmes was dazed, although no marks or trace of the current could be found upon their persons. Ringle and Taggett are recovering.

Bridges Washed Away.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 5.—A Tribune special from La Crosse, Wis., says: Heavy wind and rain storms have prevailed throughout this portion of the country, during the past twenty-four hours, doing great damage. Railway bridges are washed out at many places, and trains of the Chicago, Burlington and Northern and Milwaukee roads are all delayed or abandoned.

Heavy Rain at Binghampton.

BINGHAMPTON, N. Y., June 5.—About 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon a severe rain and hail storm passed over this city. The rainfall for the half hour that the storm lasted was the heaviest known here for years, but no serious damage was done.

Fast Horse Killed.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., June 5.—During a severe storm here yesterday evening an electric light wire was knocked down and struck and killed a fast horse owned by John Chandler, which was being driven in from the races.

A Hot Day in New York.

NEW YORK, June 5.—Yesterday was the hottest June 4th for twenty years. The mercury reached 93 degrees. A remarkably severe but a short lived thunderstorm last night somewhat cooled the air.

A Newspaper Office in Trouble.

CHICAGO, June 5.—A constable took possession of The Globe newspaper yesterday afternoon on a distress warrant sworn out by the proprietor of the building occupied by The Globe. The Globe company is said to be several months rent in arrears. Mr. Patterson, the manager of the paper, said the company would be able to settle claims satisfactorily and that the business of the paper would in no wise become complicated.

Church and Dwelling Burned.

WEBSTER, Mass., June 5.—The Congregational church, the house and barn of H. Conant, of Pawtucket, R. I., and the dwelling, with barn, of Zebulon Morris, heirs of Dudley Hill, were burned yesterday. The loss on the church is $10,000; insurance, $2,000. Loss on dwelling and barn, $6,000; on Morris' house, $1,600.

Election Returns from Oregon.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 5.—Incomplete returns from all the counties in the state gives Hermann, Republican, for congress, 8,977 majority; Penneyer, Democrat, for governor, 3,466 majority. It is thought these majorities will be increased by the official counts.

Shocked by Lightning.

The Senate and House.

Proceedings of Both Branches of Congress.

THE FORTIFICATION BILL AGAIN.

Several Amendments to the Measure Discussed by the Senate and Action Taken Thereon—A Variety of Business Occupies the Time of the House.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—In the senate yesterday the resolution for an inquiry into the management of the fish commissioner's office was taken up and agreed to.

The presiding officer, Mr. Ingalls, announced as the select committee on the bill for the establishment of the University of the United States, Messrs. Edmunds, Skinner, Ingalls, Blair, Dolph, Harris, Butler, Gibson and Barbour, and said: "In explanation of the apparent indecision of appointing himself on the committee, that the membership was selected by those who were specially interested in the passage of the bill and that he was not consulted."

The fortifications bill was taken up the pending question being on striking out two items for the Watervliet, N. Y., arsenal, $248,743 for the erection of the south wing, and $78,000 for machinery for 12-inch guns, and inserting in lieu of them the following: "For boring and turning lathes, rifling machinery and eighty-ton traveling crane, fully equipped for the manufacture of 12-inch guns at Watervliet arsenal, New York, $285,000."

Mr. Gorman opposed the insertion of the latter item, and favored the striking out of the first two items. He spoke of the proposition as one intending to center all the work of manufacturing ordnance in government work shops, instead of dividing it, as had been arranged under the legislation of 1883, with private work shops.

Mr. Daves replied to Mr. Gorman, and defended the amendment proposed by the committee on appropriations. If private parties did not come up to the expectation, it would be absolutely necessary for the government to carry on the work.

Mr. Morgan spoke at much length in favor of the policy of having all the ports on the Atlantic, the Pacific and the Gulf of Mexico provided with sufficient defense to resist any attack by hostile fleets; also in favor of the building and maintenance of a strong navy, and of the establishment of government works in various parts of the country for the casting and finishing of large ordnance. After further discussion the amendment was agreed to—yeas 27, nays 18.

Mr. Teller offered an amendment to purchase and test a recoil-operated infantry small-arm of 30-calibre, with the compound accelerating cartridges, also to test one light rapid-fire, rapid-transit, expounder breech-loading field gun, mounted upon a disappearing, shielded, field gun carriage, and also to test one retiring sea coast defense carriage. Agreed to.

All the amendments recommended by the committee on appropriations were agreed to and the bill was reported to the senate.

There a separate vote was taken on the amendment increasing the appropriation for rifled sea coast mortars from $250,000 to $400,000. The amendment was agreed to—yeas 21, nays 15.

The amendment as to the Watervliet arsenal was also agreed to—yeas 28, nays 15.

All the other amendments were agreed to, and the bill was passed. The concurrent resolution of the house authorizing the enrolling clerk to insert in the administrative bill a certain proviso, agreed to by the conference committee, but omitted by error in the enrollment bill, was presented, explained by Mr. Allison, and agreed to. (It has reference to the duties on imported goods saved from wrecked vessels.)

A communication from the secretary of the interior in reply to Mr. Stewart's resolution, as to the division of funds for irrigation to graphical surveys; denying that there was any such division, was presented, read, and ordered printed and referred to the committee on irrigation.

Mr. Gorman offered a resolution, which was agreed to, calling upon the secretary of war for information relative to the improvement of the water way from the Patascope river to Curtis bay, with recommendations and estimates of the United States officer in charge.

Mr. Frye offered a joint resolution to authorize the president to form alliance with foreign countries for the suppression of the liquor traffic. Referred to the committee on foreign relations.

The senate then, at 5:30, adjourned.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—In the house Mr. Osborne, of Pennsylvania, presented the conference report on the army appropriation bill. The "canteen" clause of the bill, as agreed upon in conference, was criticised by Mr. Holman, of Indiana, as discriminating against enlisted men.

Mr. Pickler, of South Dakota, was opposed to the whole proposition. He did not want the government to legalize the sale of liquors to the soldiers.

Mr. Osborne thought that for a member of congress to attempt to get a little prohibitory capital by striking at the canteen, which was indorsed by officers of the army, was to show himself who was looking forward to the election not far distant. After further debate the report was agreed to.

Mr. Morrill, of Kansas, reported a disagreement of conference committee on the senate dependent pension bill. The house insisted on its amendment, providing a service pension, and a further conference was ordered.

The house then proceeded to the further consideration of the Alabama contested election case of McDuffie against Turpin.

Mr. Wilson, of Missouri, in advocating the claims of the contestee, said that this case was intended to pave the way for a Federal election law. The verdict on this case would stain the record of the house for all time. It was a monument which would stand forever of the greatest injustice ever wrought on this floor since the foundation of the government.

Mr. Turpin spoke briefly in his own behalf.

Mr. Rowell, of Illinois, summed up the case of the contestant. In the course of his remarks he said that the time was coming when all over the United States it would be as much a crime to stuff a ballot-box or falsify a return as it would be to commit a felony.

The first vote was taken on the minority resolution, declaring Turpin elected, and it was rejected—yeas 114, nays 130.

The majority resolution, sending McDuffie, was agreed to—yeas 130, nays 113, and Mr. McDuffie appeared at the bar of the house and took the oath of office.

Mr. McKinley, of Ohio, presented a concurrent resolution directing the enrolling clerk to enroll in the customs administrative bill what is known as senate amendment 91 in regard to the abandonment of goods to underwriters and salvors. Although there was no opposition to the correction being made, the Democrats carrying out their program of making the administrative bill a test measure as to the power of the speaker to count a quorum, were unwilling to give even their tacit consent to any feature of the bill. They therefore ordered the yeas and nays and refrained from voting.

The resolution was agreed to—yeas 127, nays 5. The speaker counting a quorum.

The house then, at 4:05, adjourned.

REACHING AN AGREEMENT.

The Cherokee Commission and the Sacs and Fox Indians.

SAC AND FOX AGENCY, I. T., June 5.—The Cherokee commission at the National council of the Sacs and Foxes yesterday made an offer to pay them $1.25 for their reservation of 480,000 acres after the 40,000 acres have been allotted to them for lands in severalty, or 160 acres for each member of the tribe.

Of this 160 acres one-half is to be untaxable, and in twenty-five years, the other half to be disposed of as the Indians desire. At Monday's meeting the Indians offered to accept 200 each and $2 an acre for the remainder. It is believed that the Indians and the commissioner will come to an agreement. The Sacs and Foxes already have $1,500,000 to their credit in the United States treasury and are very independent.

Going It Blind.

NEW YORK, June 5.—In the Reformed Presbyterian church synod yesterday a report condemning secret societies was debated. The only objection made was that it was not strong enough, and after Dr. H. H. George, of Beaver Falls, Pa.; Rev. N. R. Johnson, of Oakland, Cal.; and others had urged more decisive action, the report was adopted and a committee appointed to draft resolutions further indicating the sense of the synod. Rev. T. A. H. Wylie, of Washington, Iowa, presented the report on "The Sabbath." Professor D. B. Wilson, of Allegheny, Pa., the report on "Domestic Missions" and Rev. J. C. McMilligan the report on "Sustenance and Church Erection."

Tennessee Prohibitionists.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., June 5.—The Prohibition state convention met here yesterday, 500 delegates being present. Resolutions were adopted denouncing the two old parties for their friendship to the liquor interests; denouncing the United States supreme court original package decision; favoring farming and workingmen's organizations; endorsing the Australian ballot system; and opposing the right of suffrage to foreign citizens who have been in this country less than ten years. Rev. D. C. Kelley, of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, was nominated for governor, and accepted the honor.

Intentioned With Rabies.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 5.—John Templeton, of Traders' Point, undertook to release his dog, a large savage animal which had been tied up for several days, and the brute attacked him, biting him terribly before being shot. It was then discovered that the animal was seized of hydrophobia, and had bitten out its own tongue in its paroxysms. Mr. Templeton is frightfully apprehensive that his fate will be something similar.

A Good Law.

The last annual report of the State Auditor places the number of pauper idiots in Kentucky at 1,418. These cost the State last year a little over $100,000.

Under the law that had prevailed for a long time, the State paid $75 a year for the support of each pauper idiot. Recently the large increase in the number of these unfortunate people in the mountain counties gave rise to the belief that the Commonwealth was being defrauded. The law was framed so that the State's interest could not be guarded.

The last Legislature, however, passed a bill which it is thought will correct the abuse. This new law provides that "the annual allowance to a pauper idiot shall be $75, of which $55 shall be paid out of the State Treasury, in the manner now directed by law, and $25 by the County Court of the county wherein said idiot may reside.

"Section 2. No allowances shall be paid the committee of a pauper idiot, by the Auditor, until said committee shall have filed with the Auditor a copy of the order of his County Court, allowing the portion due thereof by said county, and his own affidavit that the same has, in good faith, been paid."

This law went into effect May 23. The opinion is that it will materially reduce the list of such paupers, and consequently result in a big saving to the State.

If we mistake not the Court of Claims at its recent session made no allowance for pauper idiots of this county. If such is the case, they can not draw any money from the State until such allowance of $20 is made by the county, and paid.

INSURANCE.

What the Companies Received and Paid in Maysville Last Year. Interesting Statistics.

The twentieth annual report of the State Insurance Commissioner, just issued, contains some interesting statistics. It gives the yearly statements of all companies doing business in Kentucky in 1889.

The losses paid in this city in 1889 amounted to $15,943, while the premiums for the same time amounted to over $36,000.

Commissioner Duncan, in speaking of the business of fire and fire-marine insurance companies, done in Kentucky for the year ending December, 31, 1889, says:

"The unusual number of conflagrations during the year just closed were disastrous in their consequences to many companies, and, while some emerged from the year's experience with a handsome addition to their surplus, which, however, was the exception, the result for the year was not a profitable one to the companies as a whole. This is especially true of the result in Kentucky, as will be seen when it is stated that the total premiums received in the State during the year by all companies amounted to $2,316,650.92, and the losses paid to $1,846,399.34. But, notwithstanding the large fire waste for the year, and for a number of years past, it may be said with perfect confidence that the companies now holding authority from this department to transact business in the State, are of undoubted solvency, and offer our people the fullest protection that can be afforded them."

The following table shows the premiums received and losses paid in some of the principal cities by the stock fire and fire-marine insurance companies.

Cities.	Premiums.	Losses.
Louisville.....	$961,299	$890,323
Lexington.....	125,863	48,567
Owensboro.....	85,583	10,661
Covington.....	81,669	31,688
Frankfort.....	68,731	37,191
Henderson.....	58,710	7,083
Paducah.....	53,101	32,847
Mt. Sterling.....	37,177	23,146
Maysville.....	36,315	15,913
Hopkinsville.....	36,062	28,165
Shelbyville.....	32,226	19,939
Bowling Green.....	29,931	13,378
Lawrenceburg.....	28,811	22,518
Paris.....	28,722	31,545
Winchester.....	26,223	7,016
Lebanon.....	24,879	13,148
Richmond.....	24,154	1,247
Newport.....	20,865	5,974
Cynthiana.....	20,563	2,189

It will be seen from this table that Louisville and Paris were the only losing cities in the State to these companies; the losses of the former exceeded its premiums by $929,036, and the latter by $1,813.

In the remarks in part II, Commissioner Duncan says:

"The business for the year of the life companies shows a healthy and continued growth and a decided increase over that of 1888—the business in Kentucky being the largest in its history. * * * The total premiums received by all classes of companies, exclusive of assessment life and accident companies were $4,917,734.86; losses and claims paid, $3,066,519.87, and taxes paid into the Treasury, $105,125.96, exclusive of receipts of this department and of the surplus paid by it into the Treasury at the end of the fiscal year."

PICTURES AT HAYSWOOD.

Hayswood was thronged until a late hour last evening, the occasion being the annual art reception at this popular educational institution.

The lawn was lighted up with fancy colored lanterns, and here the little folks enjoyed themselves to their heart's content, while the rest of the crowd admired the work of the class in art the past session.

The display was made in the chapel. At one end of the room were a lot of lovely flowers and potted plants and evergreens prettily arranged, while on the walls and on easels and on tables about the room there was a beautiful exhibit of the work of the pupils. Miss Julia M. Stone, of Westfield, N. Y., an accomplished teacher, has had charge of the art department the past session. There were nineteen pupils in the class, and their work was very much admired by all who saw the display last evening.

Miss Julia Cox had several beautiful pieces in the display, among them a head finished in oils on matting, and a landscape in oils.

Miss Estelle Sparks had quite a number of pieces that were much admired. In the lot were an oil painting of "Little Red Riding Hood," a watercolor sketch of the "Evening Bulletin," and a study from still life in India ink.

Misses Margaret Pickett, Lizzie Newman Cox, Lyda Owens and Marlon Wormald, the younger pupils of the class, had in the display a group of crayon sketches from still life.

Miss Alice T. Gill had a pretty study from life in oils, some nasturtiums in oils and a fan and jar in oils. An oil painting of a figure on matting, and of a basket of potatoes and celery by Miss Gill were two of her best pieces, and were much admired.

One of the most beautiful pieces in the display was an oil painting of some almond blossoms and birds, by Miss Anna Shackelford. She also had a study from life, in oils.

An excellent crayon drawing entitled "Wide Awake," the work of Miss Mollie McAtee was much admired.

Miss Ethel Johnson's work was much complimented. She had a lovely landscape and some roses, in water colors.

Miss Lillie Smoot's best piece was a marine scene in oils—a lovely painting. Miss Ella Downing exhibited an oil painting of a dog's head and some lovely flowers, done also in oils.

Miss Marian Wormald had a pretty study from still life, in crayon.

The decorated china was admired, perhaps, more than anything else in the display. This is a new branch of the art department, and the pupils certainly deserved the many compliments bestowed upon their work. Miss Sallie Burgess had a berry bowl and some plates; Miss Mollie McAtee, a Royal Wooster vase, a berry bowl and chocolate cup, and Miss Sue Hays, some olive dishes, a milk pitcher, cracker jar, cake plate and some after-dinner coffees.

There were some pretty specimens of wood carving, also, among them a handsome walnut mirror frame by Miss Sallie Downing.

Speaking of the tobacco market, the Cincinnati Western Tobacco Journal says: "Gradually the limit on fine new leaf is rising. It is now $25.25, and it will go higher than that before long, especially as old is exhausted. When cutter and plug manufacturers become strong competitors holders of fine leaf expect much better prices for the select, which they say is a very scarce article, and that it will take higher prices to bring it out."

THE MISSING VISCOUNT BOYLE.

He is Still Absent, and it is Now Believed That His Brother Has Met With Foul Play—Other Clippings From the Latest Cable Dispatches.

LONDON, June 5.—The missing Viscount Boyle, who is anxiously awaited by his family to assume the title and estate of his father, the late Earl of Shannon, is still successful in concealing his whereabouts, if, indeed, he is alive, and it is now feared that another member of the family has followed him into obscurity.

At the beginning of the search for Lord Boyle one of his brothers went to Australia, where it was thought the missing heir might be found. For awhile he communicated with his friends at home, but of late nothing has been heard from him, nor can anything be learned of his movements. In the case of the missing earl, foul play is suspected as the cause of the brother's disappearance.

Fight in the Serbian Frontier.
BELGRADE, June 5.—A bloody fight between Arnauts and Serbians has taken place on the Serbian frontier. The Ottoman and Serbian governments have telegraphed orders for an inquiry into the affair. The government is informed that the Arnauts killed fifteen and wounded thirty-five Christians, robbed the dead and violated the women.

Haggard's Latest.
LONDON, June 5.—Mr. H. Rider Haggard, writing to an American publishing company of his novel "Beatrice," says: "Since the American legislature has hoisted the black flag it would be quixotic not to sail thereunder, but it will be courteous to preserve the reputation of foreign authors."

Severe Sentences.
PARIS, June 5.—The trial of the Marquis D'Mores and the others arrested with him for connection with the May Day disorders ended yesterday in their conviction. The marquis was sentenced to three months' imprisonment and the Anarchist Volle to one month in prison.

LIZARD IN A MAN'S STOMACH.
It Remains There for Three Years and is Then Thrown Up.

LAFORTE, Ind., June 5.—John Lingard, for forty-eight years a resident of this county, died Tuesday from a peculiar cause. For three years he has suffered greatly from what was thought to be a tumor in his stomach.

Shortly before death he vomited up a large lizard, which, it is thought, he must have swallowed while drinking about the time he was taken ill, and which must then have been very small to escape notice. The reptile, when emitted, was partly decomposed, but its head, legs and tail were intact. It is thought that the death of the lizard hastened the death of Mr. Lingard.

Alabama Republican Ticket.
MONTGOMERY, Ala., June 5.—Last night the Republicans concluded to nominate a state ticket as follows: For governor, Noble Smithson; secretary of state, W. H. Vernon; auditor, E. T. Jennings; treasurer, T. D. Booth; superintendent of education, Amos Towle; attorney general, John T. Ezell.

Found Dead in His Bunk.
NEW YORK, June 5.—At an early hour this morning John S. Parker, the steward of the Cunard steamer Bothnia lying at Pier 48, North river, was found dead in his bunk on board the vessel. The coroner's office was notified. The steamship company will take charge of the body.

Washout Causes a Fatal Wreck.
PRAIRIE DU CHIEN, Wis., June 5.—A washout occurred last night near May, sixty miles south of here, on the Chicago, Burlington and Northern road. An engine and twenty cars of a Kansas City and St. Paul freight train were derailed and a brakeman and fireman killed.

WALKED OUT OF JAIL, but He Promises the Sheriff That He Will Be Back Again.

AUGUSTA, Ga., June 5.—Tattnall county's only prisoner, confined in jail at Reidsville, unlocked the door Monday night and walked out. His name is John Franzer, a northern man, who was arrested charged with stealing the money of a man with whom he was traveling.

Franzer left a letter addressed to the sheriff which has created much amusement. In it he states that he is in a hurry to get out of the county, and will not, therefore, arouse the sheriff from his sweet slumbers at night to bid him good-by. If he remained in jail all summer his muscles would get soft, preventing him from doing a good day's work. He thanks the sheriff for being kind to him, and assures him that he will return in October, when court meets, and stand trial, when he hopes to be acquitted.

CHINESE AND OPIUM.
Smuggling Carried on Through Mexico and British Columbia.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Mr. A. Willard, United States consul at Guaymas, Mex., in a letter transmitted to the senate, reports the arrival of 111 more Chinamen at Mazatlan. The thirty-nine Chinamen whose arrival at Guaymas was reported in a previous letter, Mr. Willard states, have left Guaymas for Sonora, near the United States frontier, and are awaiting an opportunity to cross the border. The United States officers were notified.

Mr. Levi W. Myers, United States Consul at Victoria, B. C., tells how twenty-two Chinamen were undoubtedly smuggled into the United States by the steamer North Star, which has a bad reputation.

The Chinamen were taken on board the vessel very quietly about midnight, and although the Canadian collector had been watching her, she slipped out of the harbor in safety, and managed to elude a pursuing tug sent after her. The price charged for this work is $20 per head. Mr. Myers says: "If this practice is not stopped more cutters must be placed on the sound and spies must be employed to aid the Canadian authorities, who are, in my judgment, working faithfully to break it up. They say the lawlessness that goes from this side will come back in like manner from the other side, and hence their motive for breaking up the whole business. I believe that large quantities of opium are smuggled from this port."

Returned to Sell.
NEW YORK, June 5.—Washington Quinlan, the stock operator, who disappeared a month ago, leaving a large amount of short contracts to be closed out at a loss under the rules of the Stock Exchange is again in the city, and has notified the Stock Exchange that he was prepared to pay off all claims with interest for the twenty-seven days is said to be made good by his family, and before the close of the exchange several of his creditors received checks signed by him. His friends say that his family have been taking care of him for the past three weeks, but they decline to state where he has been during that period or where he went, when he so mysteriously disappeared. They say, however, that he has been very sick, but that he is now in improved health.

No Use for Electricity.
UTICA, N. Y., June 5.—When the jury in the case of D. Webster Stoddard, who has been on trial for forgery at Herkimer, Tuesday announced a verdict of guilty, Stoddard arose and went into an ante-room of the court house, pulled a revolver from his pocket and shot himself through the head. It is thought he will die. The case is the most sensational ever tried in Herkimer county, and the unexpected tragedy at its close creates great excitement.

One of Lincoln's Letters.
COLUMBUS, O., June 5.—A historian who is compiling the letters, messages, speeches and other documents of President Lincoln for publication finished a search of the records of the executive office of Ohio yesterday. Only one autograph letter of Lincoln was found. It bears the date April 23, 1864, and accepts the offer of the governors of Indiana, Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin to furnish 85,000 troops for one hundred days' service.

Two Clouds Meet.
CANTON, O., June 5.—The meeting of two clouds over this place Tuesday was followed by a blinding flash of lightning. It tore away one end of the house of Mrs. Kate Monnin, Rex street, seriously injuring her and Miss Frances Rhinehart, and badly shocking Mrs. Samuel Reed, two children and Mrs. Mary Wheeler, who were in the house at the time. The son of Samuel Moss-grove was knocked from a fence and hurt, and many others in the neighborhood were more or less shocked.

Royal Arcanum.
MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 5.—The thirteenth annual session of the Supreme Council of the Royal Arcanum of the United States and Canada convened in this city at 2 p. m., yesterday, Supreme Regent Hon. L. R. Watts, of Virginia, presiding. The report of the supreme secretary showed a membership of 97,957, an increase of 11,000 during the past year. In the afternoon the uniform rank paraded the streets and at night a grand reception and concert were tendered the visitors at Schlitz's park.
